Students at off-site locations may now be eligible

Students enrolled in NPC programs offered at off-campus/center locations may now be eligible for Federal Pell Grants and other financial aid assistance.

These programs include: Automotive, Cosmetology, Fire Science, Heavy Equipment Operations, Industrial Maintenance & Operations and Welding. Check with your academic adviser for which programs and locations qualify.

To be eligible for financial aid for the Spring 2013 semester, students need to have all of their paperwork submitted prior to the Oct. 15 Priority Deadline.

"Student success begins before most students start attending classes, which is why the NPC Financial Aid Office established a priority deadline," said Jake Hinton, dean of students. "This priority deadline allows the Financial Aid Office time to process a student's paperwork and also ensures eligible students will receive aid in time for the semester. Students who complete their files after the priority deadline will be expected to pay their own fees and will be reimbursed after they are eligible."

To start the financial aid process, complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid at fafsa.ed.gov. For information about other scholarship opportunities, visit www.npc.edu/scholarships. NPC does not participate in any Federal student loan programs.

A new law limits the lifetime eligibility for receiving Pell grants. Students can check out their lifetime eligibility at NSLDS.ed.gov.

Noncredit Self-Defense for Women classes

Instructor Donna Krieser is offering her popular noncredit, "Self Defense for Women" (HPE 099x) workshop from 9 a.m. to Noon at 3 NPC campuses:

Saturday, Sept. 29: WMC (Section 34975);
Saturday, Oct. 6: SCC (Section 35007); and Saturday, Oct. 20: PDC (Section 35008).

There is a $20 fee for the workshop, which combines both lecture and hands-on skills to increase your safety.

Enroll in the "Self Defense for Women" workshop at least a week before the class to ensure it is not cancelled due to insufficient enrollment. Sign up at any NPC location during regular business hours.
