

$4,000 Available for Science, Technology, Engineering or Math Students

A grant from the National Science Foundation (NSF) is providing full ride scholarships and additional educational opportunities for Northland Pioneer College students with strong aptitudes in science, technology, engineering and mathematics.

"This grant not only provides tuition, fees and textbook scholarships but several outstanding learning opportunities for students including internships, job shadowing, and specialized or university field trips to explore professional fields," commented Dr. Patrick Canary, NPC's Dean of Arts and Sciences.

Qualifying students can receive up to $4,000 per year, in addition to Pell grants and other financial awards. NPC can accommodate up to 24 students each year in the STEM program.

For additional information and general requirements, contact an NPC academic advisor, DR. PATRICK CANARY at 524-7350, or RANDY PORCH, at 532-6732.

SGA Offers Stipends to Study Spanish This Summer in Costa Rica

NPC's Student Government Association (SGA) is offering stipends again this year for students to study Spanish in Costa Rica this summer.

The study abroad opportunity will be June 28 through July 30. The cost is $1,985, which includes tuition, room and two meals per day. Airfare is extra.

The deadline to apply for the program and SGA stipends is MARCH 20. A full ride and partial stipend are being offered.

For additional information, contact your local SGA representative, or SGA Advisor JAKE HINTON, 524-7662.
