

10-Minute Play Festival highlights NPC playwrights, directors & actors

Seven individual short plays, written, directed and acted by Northland Pioneer College students will highlight a “10-MINUTE PLAY FESTIVAL,” Thursday through Saturday, APRIL 22 TO 24, at the Performing Arts Center on the Snowflake/Taylor Campus. Curtain is at 7 o'clock each evening.

The NPC students are enrolled in playwriting, acting and play production courses at the college. Free refreshments will also be included in the lobby as part of the play festival, which will allow audience members to flow between seeing the plays of their choice and enjoying the refreshment opportunities.

2nd Annual SGA Talent Show, April 24

A $500 first place prize awaits the winner of the second annual Talent Show, sponsored by NPC Student Government Association, Saturday, APRIL 17, beginning at 7 p.m., at the Performing Arts Center on the Snowflake/Taylor campus.

The show will feature singing, dancing and comedy routines.

General admission is $5 in advance, or $7 on the day of the performance. NPC students and staff with ID and seniors, are eligible for a $1 discount. Tickets are available through the PAC Box Office, 536-6250.

Wheels to Work program ready to roll

If you are in need of a car to get to and from your job, you may be able to get down payment assistance and a low-interest loan with a new program called WHEELS TO WORK.

“We provide down payment assistance and loan options for those with limited income who either have a down payment of their own, no credit or good credit,” said LUCINDA SINCLAIR, case manager for Wheels to Work. “Our goal is to help 85 people in the next four months improve their finances while they have reliable transportation.”
