

A Dose of Cod-Liver Oil:

the New Deal in Arizona

During the entire month of October, the Silver Creek Campus library will be hosting a traveling exhibit of photographs and primary documents showing what life was like in Arizona during the Great Depression.

Librarian Margaret White is asking area residents if they have similar mementos of that time they would be willing to share. "We would make photocopies of what folks bring in. We wouldn't want to display or keep the actual items." Suggested items, as well as photographs, might be postcards, letters, newspaper articles and ads, books, family recipes, political buttons and banners.

For further information, call Ms. White at (800) 266-7845, ext. 6222. The Silver Creek Campus library hours are: 7:45 a.m. to 10 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays, 7:45 to 4 on Fridays and closed weekends.
